

Nurses are caregivers, working closely with patients and families to provide holistic physical, mental, spiritual and social care.

MANY NURSES WORK IN A CROSS-DISCIPLINARY FASHION WITH OTHER PROFESSIONALS IMPLEMENTING SKILLS AND ASSESSMENTS LEARNED FROM OTHER PROFESSIONAL COLLEAGUES.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A NURSE.

- Referals
- Catheter management
- Documentation
- Assisting dressing
- Observations
- Administer medication
- Liase with families
- Skin care
- Review dressings
- ECG
- Medication rounds
- Support transfer
- Bloods
- Wound care
- Assess patient condition
- Assess falls risk
- Mobilise patient
- Manage pain
- Nutrition screening
- Assist washing
- Bladder Scan
- Monitor treatments

Nurses are present throughout the patients journey from A&E to acute wards to discharge and home care.

Nurses work across healthcare settings in a huge variety of different roles requiring different skills and experiences- no two nurses are the same.

